23rd November 2017

Dear Parent / Carer,

Next week, Thursday, 30th November 2017, is our final week of Resonate Music Studios at Notre Dame for this term, although we of course look forward to seeing you on January 18th 2018 for another exciting term of music making.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your support in making Resonate Music Studios at Notre Dame Catholic College such a success, and to invite you to a celebration of the hard work your children have put into their music making this term.

There will be a short concert next week starting at 5:20pm and finishing at approximately 6:30pm.

All performers will need to be at Notre Dame Catholic College for rehearsals and sound checks from 4:00pm before the concert starts.

Parents will be invited in for refreshments from 5pm onwards. There will be no cost for refreshments or indeed entry to the concert. However, we will be collecting voluntary contributions at the end of the concert. Any contributions made will go towards the funding of our young people's future music making opportunities in Liverpool so your generosity is greatly appreciated.

We very much look forward to seeing you and hope you are able to attend.

Yours sincerely,
